1960

All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts.

ROGER A. SHAW, JR., Editor
JEAN PARKER, Associate Editor
JAMES H. LANDRUM, Business Manager

LAUREL

ELIZABETH WEBSTER WATSON
Professor of Dramatics

DEDICATION

Through the years the students, the faculty, and the staff of Mars Hill have grown to love and respect you because you have given graciously of your time to the college. As a result of your patient direction and kind encouragement, we have come to realize our true abilities and to develop them to their fullest. Because of your love and zest for the truly dramatic, we have gained much more than the improvement of our abilities — we have gained an enduring love for the theatre.

In recognition and gratitude for all that you have done for the college, we dedicate the 1960 LAUREL to you,

ELIZABETH WEBSTER WATSON
Professor of Dramatics

ACT I

A teacher who can arouse a feeling for one single good action, or for one single good poem, accomplishes more than he who fills our memory with rows on rows of natural objects, classified with name and form.

—Goethe

ADMINISTRATION

HOYT BLACKWELL, Th. M., D. D.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS MESSAGE

Mars Hill College has much for which to be thankful: its heritage passed on by those who preceded us; its present patrons and benefactors; its courageous board of trustees; its devoted faculty and staff; its splendid student body. Moreover, the college owes a debt of gratitude to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina for its confidence and financial support. Above all of this, Mars Hill is grateful to God for His blessings and guidance throughout its history of more than a hundred years.

Cordially,
HOYT BLACKWELL

CAMPUS

PATRICIA ROBINSON

Another beauty filled with brains:
C-I President, this Clio reigns
W. R. A.'s Miss Pretty and Prim,
Majors in music and also in "gym."

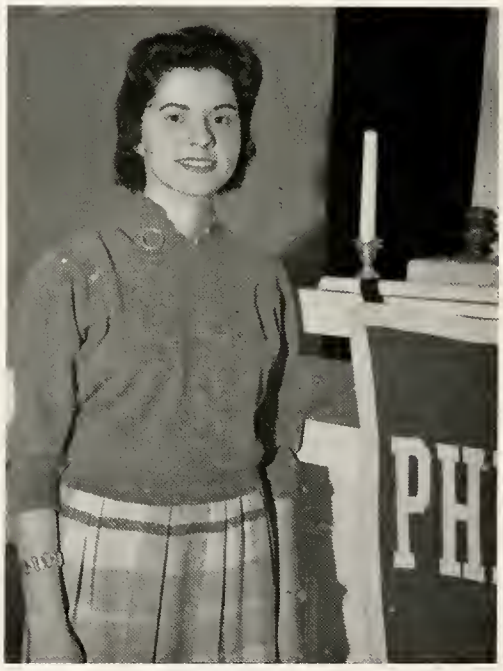

ROSA LYNN GRUITS

Student Council's VIP,
Talented writer too is she,
Nonpareil her middle name,
Scrib Club also has its claim.

DOROTHY GILLIAM

No dumb blonde this Dean's List gal:
Scrib Club member and college marshal.
Clio censor, Huffman V. P.,

MARY ETTA MANN

Madame President, she is known:
Scrib and Clio as her throne,
Beauty set off with a smile,
Chaplain for that second mile.

LEADERS

GRAYDON HUDSPETH

Of Euthalia's singing, he's the head.
Dean's List man is this pre-med,
On the Training Union Cabinet,
Science Club member? Yep, you bet.

NELSON TUNSTALL

Marshall chief and Scriblerus wheel,
Dean's List, makes your head reel.
Two years as class officer,
Serves B. S. U. as treasurer.

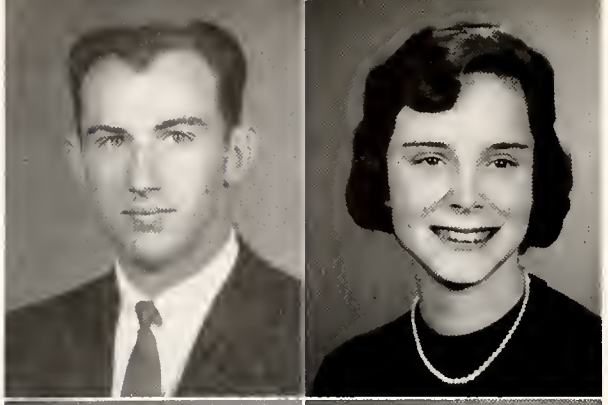

DORIS JACOBS

Good things come in little packages,
Her name's on some of the Dean's List pages.
Fresh secretary, Clio Chaplain too,
First V. P. of the B. S. U.

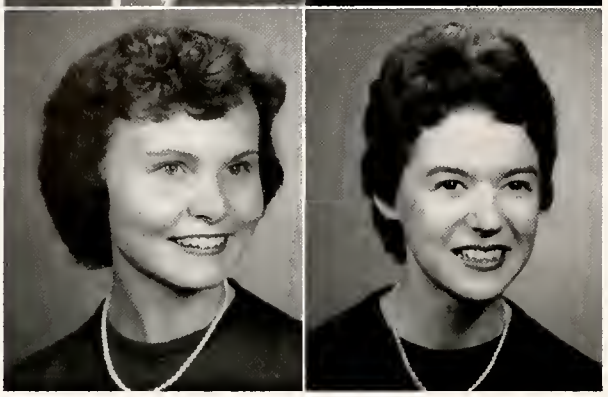

BOB HANCOCK

We find his loyalty always true,
Forever and ever with B. S. U.
Mr. President is this guy,
And, of course, he is a Phi.

CAMPUS

ANN WOODALL

Sophomore sec., Fresh money keeper,
Makes top grades, she's no sleeper.
Pretty gal, this May Court beauty,
Treasurer of Scrib is another duty.

DON DAVIS

His middle name is B. T. U.,
This friendly guy is a Eu.
Virginia born and bred is he,
Also a member of I. R. C.

PETER WONG

Forensic term president of Eu,
Publicity chairman of B. S. U.,
Quite a guy, this Dean's List Wong,
Pride of Mars Hill and Hong Kong.

JOANNA POWELL

Nonpareil C-I Vice,
B.S.U. V. P. twice,
Sec.-Treas. for I. R. C.,
Pretty blonde with personality.

LEADERS

LORETTA MILLSAPPS

LAUREL and May Court this beauty has seen
Only this year she's the Queen
To Scriblerus she's always true
And close to her heart is the white and blue.

VIRGINIA GIBSON

Non chaplain, censor, president
This lovely Baltimore resident
Secretary of the Huffman crew
Student Council's secretary too.

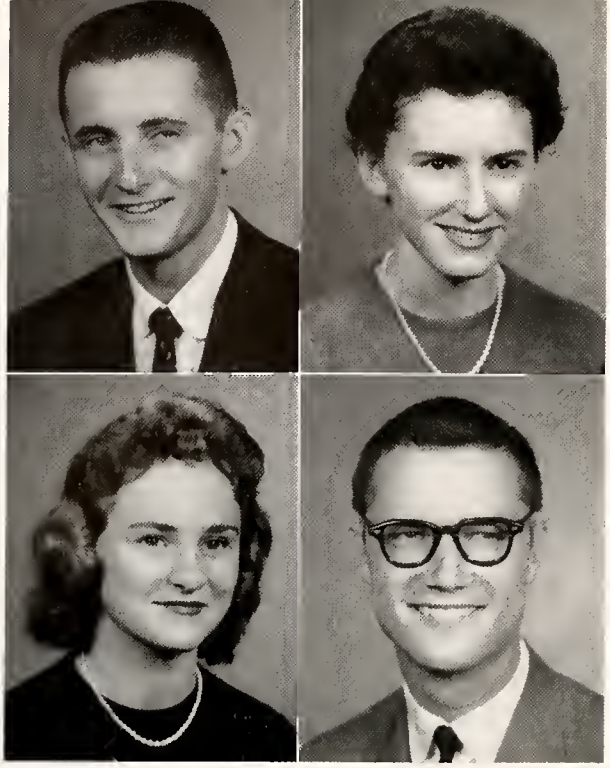

LUCY RHODES

A-I student on the top
At making the grades, she's no flop.
Always happy, on the go
Music major and loyal Clio.

ROGER SHAW

The LAUREL'S "Big Wheel" personality,
Dramateers and I. R. C.
Always smiling, never blue
All this and the Dean's List too.

Mr. Roger A. Shaw, Jr.
Mars Hill College
Mars Hill, N. C.

Dear Mr. Shaw:

All the photographs you sent me indicate lovely young ladies. It is difficult and unfair to judge beauty from pictures. However, I have selected the one who appeara to me to have the best features and brightness of personality. Please know that I consider them all quite pretty, but the first is outstanding to me.

I am out of New York at the moment and have no photograph of myself handy. As to my biographical material - I received a Master of Fine Arts from Yale University in theatre production in 1950, came to New York where I worked briefly in television and then in the Broadway theatre as stage manager. I am now production supervisor of all shows done by the David Merrick organization. We have five currently on Broadway - GYPSY, DESTRY RIDES AGAIN, LA PLUME, TAKE ME ALONG, SUZIE WONG (which is in Boston now), and THE GOOD SOUP (to open in January). As such I supervise casting, the technical end, coordinate between director, dance director, musical dept. and in general represent the producer. Once the show is opened it is my responsibility to check it, try to keep it in shape, make cast replacements, do second companies, etc., atc., etc. - all very frantic but interesting.

My very best wishes to you. By the way, can you smoke on campus now - and are the girls allowed to drink cocolas? They couldn't in my day! But that waa a hundred years ago.

Most sincerely,

Neil Hartley

LITERARY

LAUREL

ROGER A. SHAW, JR.
Editor-in-Chief

The curtain has finally closed and the LAUREL has gone to press. We've lost friends, sleep, good grades, and our tempers. The long nights of work, days wasted chasing students and faculty members to have their pictures made, and the anxious hours spent contemplating the consequences of not meeting the deadline have passed with the brushing of the curtain on the floor of the stage.

The staff, though small, has enjoyed its work. We especially thank Mr. Walter P. Smith for his fine cooperation and help as photographer. The staff also gives a special word of thanks to our advisor, Mr. Robert Chapman, for his able ability to solve all our problems and sign all our bills.

And to those of the student body who wish to utter various grievances, we can only say: "To err is human; to forgive, divine."

HILLTOP

CAROL RAYE LANKFORD
Editor-in-Chief

The theatre lights dimmed as a hush came over the audience, the stage lights came on as the star of the show appeared. The performance had begun.

Yes, another performance had begun at Mars Hill College, and as all performances it required planning, supervision, and practice. Every two weeks a rigid schedule compelled the actors to study their lines, revise the copy, and put on the finishing touches for the grande finale.

The steady rhythm of the typewriters, staff meetings, nosey newspaper reporters, scraps of yellow paper, ads, telephone calls, scotch tape, headlines, long hours, and the five o'clock Friday deadline all lead up to the climax — another edition safe in the hands of the reader.

All too soon the stage lights dim and all the 1959-60 editions of the HILLTOP are only history — written proof of the past performances on the M. H. C. campus.

CLIO-PHILOMATHIA

As the curtain rises on the Clio-Philomathian Literary Society for the year 1959-1960, the spotlight falls first on their ideals of Truth, Purity, and Fidelity. Then as the spotlight moves further across the stage of time, each respective term falls into the limelight. First, the drive for new members in C-I Term is seen. Following closely, is the scene which takes place during Anniversary Term; the time in which Clio and Phi present their elaborate programs in honor of each other. The stage is set first with the Philomathian theme, "A Night of Peace"; then with the Clio production "Green Mansions." The spotlight is cast on Forensics Term with its emphasis on forensic competition. The curtain closes as the Commencement Term passes into the shadows, and the scene fades from Clio-Phi.

C-I TERM

ANNIVERSARY TERM

FORENSICS TERM

NONPAREIL-EUTHALIA

A new and exciting scene is set upon the stage of life at Mars Hill as the curtain rises on Nonpareil-Euthalia Literary Societies. The ideals which comprise the fervent spirit of Non-Eu gleam vividly in the lights — Dignity, Simplicity, and Conservatism. The setting, consisting of four terms, begins first, with plans for the drive for new members in C-I Term. The true meaning of society is revealed in the programs of this term. Next appears the exciting Anniversary Term, in which the Euthalians present their program based on "Faith," and the Nonpareils reciprocate with their reception and its enthralling theme, "Paris." Attention is then drawn to the competitive action of Forensics Term. However, as the lights dim, Non-Eu presents one last term. Thus Commencement Term fades, and becomes another setting of the past.

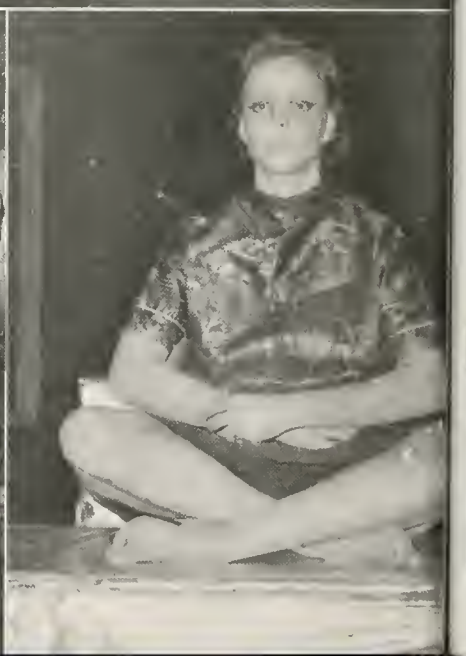

C-1 TERM

FORENSIC TERM

HONOR CLUBS

A chance to appear on the Mars Hill stage of honor is gained by each student who is willing to put forth genuine interest, a great deal of study and hard work, and perseverance. To be invited to join an honor club is a merit worthy of praise. The clubs cover the fields of business, English, history, the languages, music, religion, and science. To be eligible scholastically, a student must make no less than thirty quality points with no grade below C and at least a B on the particular subject represented by the club. Other personal qualifications are also considered. The clubs meet monthly to present programs of particular interest to club members.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club, representing the social sciences, offers to students an opportunity to gain a deeper insight into world affairs, past and present. The programs offer a chance for participation and discussion to all members. Such programs as the "Current English Election and the Effect on the United States," "American Foreign Policy in World Affairs," and "What Next For France?" have been presented. Through guest speakers such as Mr. Valentine Farkas, Spanish and German teacher from Hungary, who spoke on "Displaced Persons," the members of the I. R. C. have gained a knowledge of the situation in the world today.

SCRIBLERUS CLUB

The Scriblerus Club, representing the honor students in the English department, is one of the ten scholarship clubs authorized on the Mars Hill Campus. The programs for the meetings usually deal with a certain aspect of the literary world. Among the programs this year have been Pulitzer Prize winner reports, plays, recitations, and discussions on current literary magazines.

BUSINESS CLUB

The Business Club offers programs that prove beneficial and enjoyable to the honor business students at Mars Hill. The first program of the year centered on secretarial development, adapted from the booklet, "The Girl With the Halo." Discussions in other meetings were on "Your First Job," "How to Land Your Job," "Customers Are Bosses, too," and "Your Economic Future." These discussions were led by members of the club.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club is outstanding among the modern language honor clubs. Programs dealing with French life, customs, art, and history are presented at the meetings. Guest speakers often help the members to understand the culture of the French people. At one of the meetings Mr. Joe Robinson led a discussion on French art. Other programs have been based on French drama, literature, and conversation.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club offers a chance for all members to become acquainted with the life, literature and customs of the Spanish people. A portion of this understanding is gained through special projects, such as the preparation of Spanish meals which are sometimes served at the meetings. Special guest speakers and group discussions further highlight the meetings. A special emphasis is placed on Latin American culture. Reports from Spanish magazines, short stories, and classics are are often considered in the meetings.

LOGOTHIA

The Bible Honor Club, Logothia, offers to its members a chance for more study and a deeper understanding of the Bible. Among the programs which have been presented this year have been: "Old Testament, Forerunner of the New Testament," and "Authority of the Scriptures." Informal discussions give each of the members an opportunity to express his opinions in the meetings. Guest speakers also help the members of Logothia to increase their knowledge of the Bible.

Members: Johnny Singletary, Bob Baker, Arthur Collier, Cynthia Finch, Georgette Dowd, Francis Catherine Greene, Martha Hughes, Jennie Lee White, Gladys Ponder, Nellie Aldridge, Bill Casey, Charles Adams, Edwina Freeman, Virginia Webb, Clarence Moss, Jackie Hutchins, Ken Adylette, Peggy Hill, Northrup Hood.

ORPHEON CLUB

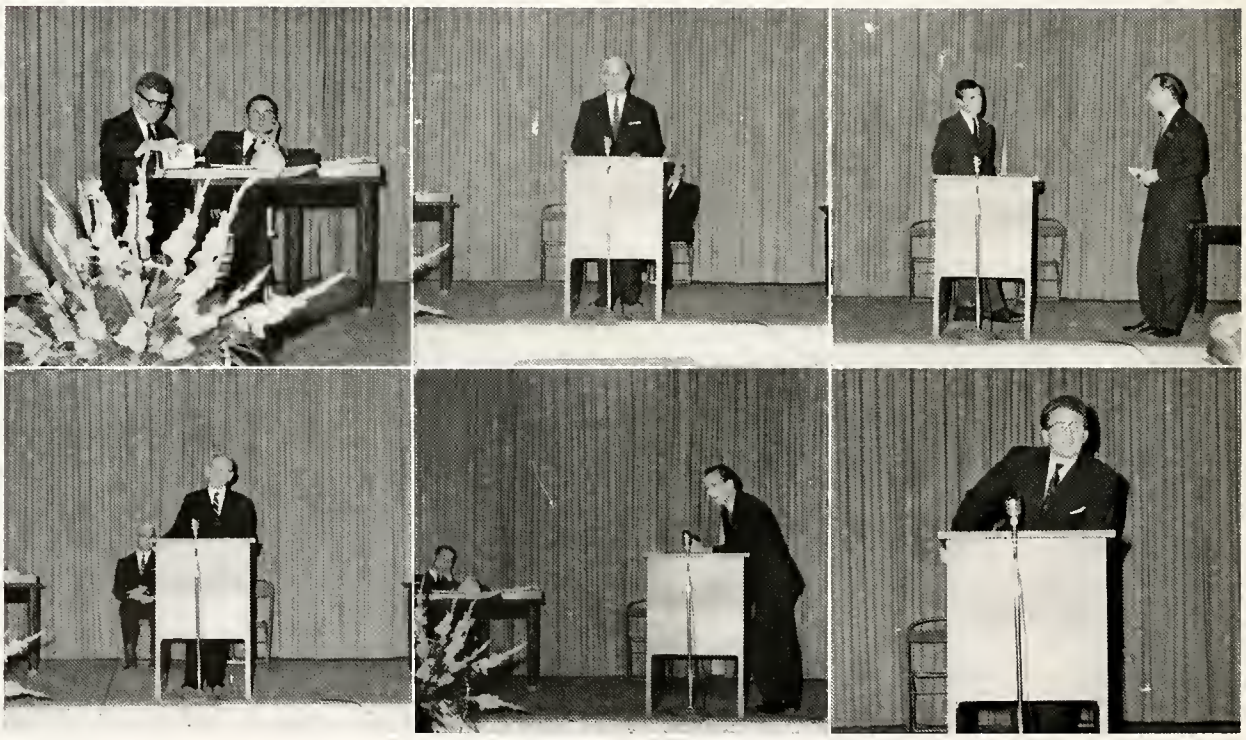

At Mars Hill, the music honor club, known as the Orpheon Club, offers the opportunity for those honor students who are musically inclined to discuss and enjoy various phases of the music world. The Orpheon Club staged a get-acquainted party for all music majors at the first meeting. Programs for the club range from musical games to concerts, and often include guest speakers.

SCIENCE CLUB

Members of the Science Club receive a deeper insight into the mysteries and phenomena of the sciences. The basis for discussion of many meetings is drawn from topics of papers written by students, or from special research projects. The latest scientific advances are reviewed by the members of the club. The Science Club includes all the departments of science at Mars Hill.

Members: Doug Aldredge, Sam Beard, Brenda Bell, Ann Broome, Barbara Capell, Chris Combs, Bobby Davis, Jim Elliott, Michael Foster, John Fisher, Larry Freeman, Graydon Hudspeth, Jarmen Jenkins, Verlie Lawing, Bill Long, Robert Meldrum, Gerald Murdock, John Pardue, Gwen Picklesimer, John Pitt, Frank Pittman, Charles Porter, Karen Reid, Leon Rhyne, Cecelia Rigsbee, Jack Stokes, John Graham, Doris Waller, Ray Walker, Carolyn Keenum, Melva West, Jimmy Williamson, Tommy Wilson, Hugo Wong, Peter Wong, Phil Lai.

Scenes from the debate between the Mars Hill College Debaters and the Cambridge Debaters.

Seated: Stan Jackman, Larry Vaughn, Edward Bagwell, Mr. Crisp, Coolidge Porterfield, Bill Deans, John Stanton. Standing: Joe Stanley, Tucker Gibson, John Reagan.

FORENSICS TEAM

In the field of Forensics, Mars Hill is respected by junior colleges and senior colleges alike. Always a tough opponent, the Mars Hill Forensics Team for 1959-1960, under the sponsorship of Mr. Gentry Crisp, has maintained a tightly filled schedule. The first debate was a practice debate with Gardner-Webb College. The team also attended the Novice Debate Tournament at Wake Forest College and the Appalachian Forensic Tournament at Boone, N. C. These tournaments have included competition in oral reading, radio, speech, public address, problem solving, and full rounds of debate. The highlight of the year was the contest between the Mars Hill debaters and a team of Cambridge debaters, who were making a tour of the colleges of the Eastern United States. The topic of the debate was: Resolved that requirement of membership in a labor organization as a condition of employment should be illegal. The Mars Hill debaters, who took the affirmative, were victorious.

MR. CRISP, Coach

Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest" was presented by the Dramateers as a part of the Freshman orientation program.

DRAMATEERS

ELIZABETH
WEBSTER WATSON
Director

The house lights dim, and again the curtain rises on an active scene at Mars Hill. It is recognized at once as the Dramateers. For those who love good plays and enjoy acting, the Dramateers affords fellowship and experience in stage productions. Several major productions and numerous one-act plays are presented during the year. This organization sponsors plays not only in the club meetings on campus but also in off-campus organizations. Mars Hill always achieves high ratings in the productions which the Dramateers give in the annual drama festival at Chapel Hill. Among the major productions presented in the college auditorium by the Dramateers this year have been: "The Importance of Being Earnest," by Oscar Wilde, and "The Hasty Heart," by John Patrick.

John Patrick's "The Hasty Heart," a comedy-drama in three acts, was the fall production of the Dramateers. The play was presented on November 14, 1959, with John Morrow as Lachlen and Feriel Forbus as Nurse Margaret.

The annual faculty play was "The Devil and Daniel Webster," written by Stephen Vincent Benet, and presented in Chapel on February 24 and 25, 1960. Robert Melvin as Daniel Webster, debated with Ellison Jenkins, who played the part of the Devil, for the soul of Jabez Stone, a part played by Robert Chapman.

The Christmas play, "A Child Is Born," by Stephen Vincent Benet, was given in Chapel on December 14 and 15. Tucker Gibson, the innkeeper, and Brenda Levy, the innkeeper's wife, presented the human side of the innkeeper's story.

COLLEGE MARSHALS

Again the drama of Mars Hill shifts to the stage of honor. The stars of this performance receive special billing as the College Marshals. Each year, from the student body, a select few are chosen as college marshals. These marshals are chosen by the faculty and receive this honor because of their good character, attractive personality and outstanding scholarship. It is the duty of the marshals to act as ushers for special occasions and performances and to assist guests in any way possible.

ART CLUB

The Art Club, although not an honor club, is composed mainly of art majors. The Art Club meets once a month for the purpose of promoting a general interest in art on the campus. The activities of the club include exhibits and various drawing and craft projects. All students who are interested in art, who seek the fellowship of other art admirers, and who welcome constructive criticism from one who is well qualified to give it, join the Art Club. Mr. Joe Chris Robinson is the Art Club's advisor. Familiarization with the materials and techniques used in art and its related fields is brought about through illustrated lectures, art films, and other projects sponsored by the club.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is composed of students interested in home economics. To be eligible for membership, a student must be taking, or must have completed, at least one course in the field of Home Economics and must maintain certain standards and ideals of the College. Members of the club enjoy a variety of activities which range from outdoor suppers to formal teas. By participating in the club, the members gain valuable experience in clothing selection and construction; food selection; preparation, and preservation; nutrition and service of family meals; and, house planning and furnishings.

NURSING CLUB

The pre-nursing students of Mars Hill contribute to the scene on the stage of activity as they participate in the Nursing Club. The future nurses enjoy meeting together to share ideas along the lines of their mutual aspirations and intended professions. They find the Nursing Club to be the realization of this desire of fellowship. The college infirmary provides a suitable setting for the meetings of the Nursing Club.

MEN'S STUDENT COUNCIL

"Counseling, not counciling" has been the theme of the Men's Student Council this year. This council is composed of the president, vice-president, and secretary of each of the five men's dormitories, and the president from each cottage. Officers this year were: President, Charles Porter; vice-president, Max Lennon; and secretary, Ron Denton.

WOMEN'S STUDENT COUNCIL

Assisted by the Men's Council, the Women's Student Council gave a Halloween party, initiated a cafeteria conduct committee, and participated in presenting the idea of an Honor System to the student body. The Women's Council convened throughout the year to discuss problems which arose in the dormitories and on campus. The Council strives to promote student democracy and harmony on Mars Hill campus.

Seated: Gladys Joyce, Patsy Quillen, Jackie Hutchings, Rosa Lynn Gruits, Doris Elrod, Sallie Graham, Dot Gilliam, Jane Phillips, Sara Leiby. Standing: Loretta Millsapps, Connie Linville.

THE COLLEGE CHOIR

Nothing can better enhance a production than the combination of many voices in song. Composed of many of the finest voices on campus, the College Choir is one of Mars Hill's most prized organizations. Membership is by audition only. The choir participates in many college functions, using sacred and secular music, including the latest Broadway productions. Many outstanding presentations have been offered to the college. In addition to participating in campus functions, the choir makes an annual spring tour to present programs in churches, high schools, and other colleges.

THE BAND

Music and drama are inseparable. As the curtain rises on another scene from Mars Hill campus, the spotlight pauses, and for a moment casts its light on the college band. The Mars Hill College Band has become a vital part of the college life. The Marching Band performs at all home football games, giving interesting and varied half-time shows. This group also accompanied the football team on trips. During the spring semester, the band presents a major concert on campus and makes a tour of high schools in the state.

THE CAMPUS CHOIR

Without a song, what scene in the drama of Mars Hill would be complete? Participation in the Campus Choir proves throughout the year to be of endless value and enjoyment. Membership in the choir is open to the entire student body. The choir, composed of mixed voices, has given several programs in chapel and concerts on campus. For students who enjoy an opportunity to "lift up their voices," it is a fine organization for fellowship and fun.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

To enhance the drama of life at Mars Hill, and give it deeper spiritual meaning, the Baptist Student Union serves as the nucleus of Christian activity. Linking the college students and the local church, the B.S.U. acts as the unifying force of all religious organizations on the campus. Students belonging to one of the unit organizations — Church, Sunday School, Baptist Training Union, Young Woman's Auxiliary, Ministerial Conference, Volunteers for Christ, Youth Temperance Council, Christian Citizenship Committee — are members of the B.S.U. The B.S.U. seeks to develop the spiritual and social life of the student by giving a foundation for a life of Christian endeavor. The Executive Council is composed of executive officers and representatives from the unit organizations. The Greater Council is composed of working committees headed by the Executive Council members.

The Baptist Student Union sponsors vespers, morning watch, and prayer groups as well as the traditional Thanksgiving program, seasonal parties in the dormitories, and other religious and social activities.

1959-60 B. S. U. COUNCIL

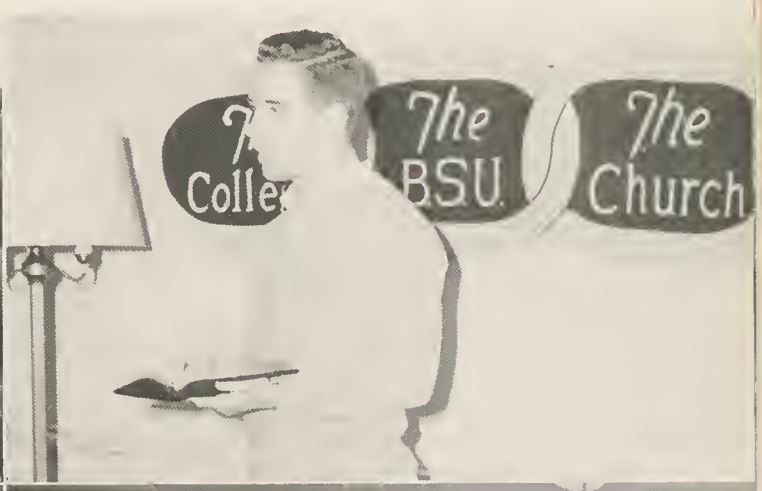

The Baptist Student Union Council is composed of executive officers and representatives of the unit organizations of the B.S.U., as well as working committees headed by Executive Council members. These representatives are known respectively as the Executive Council and the Greater Council. The council members strive to make the link between the college students and the local church ever stronger. Through their efforts, the members of the council aid in the development of the spiritual and social life of the campus by planning the activities of the B.S.U.

MINISTERIAL CONFERENCE

The Ministerial Conference is composed of young men who have felt the call to the ministry. Weekly meetings offer them training in preaching and Bible reading. It further offers experience in missionary activity and in the solution of pastoral problems. All ministerial students enrolled in the College are automatically members of the Ministerial Conference. These ministerial students serve as ushers for the Sunday evening services in the local church, direct the evening worship once a quarter, and help to promote a bond of Christian fellowship in other church activities. The faculty counselors, aided by years of experience as ministers and teachers, offer suggestions and criticisms which are invaluable to future pastors.

VOLUNTEERS FOR CHRIST

The Volunteers for Christ is an organization for those other than ministerial students who have dedicated their lives to church related vocations. This volunteer service group meets once a month for programs on missions, personal evangelism, and opportunities for Christian service. Mission programs and projects are a vital part of the activities of the Volunteers for Christ. The group strives constantly to stimulate greater interest in missions, to give members opportunities to participate in service projects, and to better prepare students for meeting the challenges of the world, in anticipation of the time when these Volunteers for Christ shall answer the challenge of the Great Commission. Furthermore, the Volunteers for Christ is for the training of those students who have dedicated themselves to Christian service either at home or abroad.

YOUNG WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

The Young Women's Auxiliary has a special place in the program of Christian discipleship by giving students a broader and more comprehensive conception of world missionary activities. Two general meetings are held each month, as well as weekly hall meetings in the dormitories. The Y.W.A. group meets together to study about the various mission fields and of the workers there. The Young Women's Auxiliary sponsors the Lottie Moon Christmas offering, chapel programs, and directs other missionary activities on campus.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP COMMITTEE

The Christian Citizenship Committee holds regular monthly meetings. At these meetings the members discuss citizenship and how good citizenship might be promoted on Mars Hill campus. The Christian Citizenship Committee President is Doris Yates.

Seated: Page Shelton, Doris Yates, Daphne Huffman, Billie Faye Christie, John Reagan, Bob Meldrum.

Seated: Gail Dowdy, Vollis Summerlin, Barbara Warren, Charles Stevens.
Standing: Charles Ritchie, Maxie Threatt, Linda Barbour.

MISSION COUNCIL

Inspired by the desire of students to spread the Gospel, the Mission Council conducts week-end revivals, holds church services in various community churches, and sponsors other off-campus missionary activities. Furthermore, as the members of the council travel from place to place in the "mission buggy," they attempt to spread joy, fellowship, and the Word of God to persons in the Oteen Veterans Hospital, in the prison camps, or other nearby missions. Through the Mission Council Mars Hill radiates the Christian atmosphere for which it is distinguished.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

The Methodist students on the campus are provided opportunities for training and fellowship in the Methodist Student Movement. A spirit of friendly cooperation exists between the M.S.M. and the B.S.U. Through the varied activities sponsored by the Methodist Student Movement, all members are given a great opportunity for Christian growth as they are kept busy for Christ.

CANTERBURY CLUB

Episcopalians enrolled at Mars Hill may join the Canterbury Club, a group which meets for fellowship, instruction, and co-operation with the local church. The Canterbury Club works together with the B.S.U., the Methodist Student Movement, and the Westminster Fellowship. The Canterbury Club holds regular meetings in which the members work toward a better understanding of the principles of the Episcopal Church and promote Christian ideals in all campus activities.

FOOTBALL '59

The Mars Hill College fighting Lions terminated the '59-'60 grid season with a 4-2 conference record, and an overall standing of 4-4. This placed Mars Hill in a tie with Wingate College for first place in the WCJCC standings.

The Lions, coached by Don Henderson, defied all pre-season expectations by downing tough Wingate in the opening game, 6-3. Buddy Windel and Richard Russo sparked Mars Hill's offensive attack, while David Rutherford and "Groundhog" Thompson looked good on defense. Both Windle and Russo will be returning next year. Russo is an All-State high school player from New Jersey.

The following week at Banner Elk, Mars Hill outscored the Lees-McRae Bobcats 20-12. Co-Captain Allen Fish scored twice in the third period to pace the Lions. Burt Burchfield and Larry Picklesimer alternated at the quarterback slot, handling the offensive attack beautifully.

Mars Hill journeyed to Staunton, Virginia the next week, and was soundly trounced by Staunton Military Academy. Ron Denton scored Mars Hill's only touchdown early in the fourth period. Avenging this defeat, Mars Hill retaliated by downing the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs, 6-0. Gardner-Webb had previously been ranked third among junior college powers in the South. Hefty tackles, Clay Jones, 222, and John Arkansas, 225, were the mainstays for Mars Hill in the line. The game developed into a defensive battle, with Mars Hill's only score coming in the final period on a pass from All-American quarterback, Larry Picklesimer, to All-Conference end, Ford Parker.

The Lions soundly laced Lees-McRae in their next outing, 35-0, but suffered several injuries that hampered the Lions for the remainder of the season. Mars Hill lost the three remaining games of the season to Wingate, Carson-Newman, and Gardner-Webb.

Coach Don Henderson says of this ball club, "I have had better records and higher scoring teams, but I have never had a harder hitting team. They play clean, hard-knocking football."

Team Elected Outstanding Members

Quarterback Larry Picklesimer, sophomore from Brevard, was chosen Mars Hill's most valuable football player for the '59 season. The selection was made by his teammates. Picklesimer was a star for four years at Brevard, and was selected to the Junior College All-American team for his performance this year. Besides being an outstanding quarterback, Larry was also a mainstay on defense.

Best offensive player went to Buddy Windle. Windle hails from Loudon, Tennessee — the best town in the best state in the union — according to Buddy and his "cohort," "Groundhog" Thompson. Ford Parker was awarded the best blocker award. Parker was outstanding on offense all year, and he surely would have gotten the best "pass receiving award," had one been given.

David Rutherford, defensive captain and a "Hoss" on defense, was elected by his teammates as the best defensive player. David surely deserves all the honor bestowed upon him, for he was a tremendous ballplayer.

Lions Placed Five on All-Conference Team

Coaches Don Henderson, Fred Dickerson of Lees-McRae, Bill Connell of Wingate, and Norman Harris of Gardner-Webb selected five of Mars Hill's gridders to the WCJCC All-Conference Team. Nine of the players were furnished by Wingate and Mars Hill, Conference co-champions. The coaches were unanimous in their selection of Gardner-Webb's Ed Lohr of Richmond, Virginia, for one of the tackle spots; Wingate's Al Frieze of Concord and Mars Hill's Lowery Worley of Marshall for the guards; and Wingate's Marvin Crowder of Clarksville, Virginia, for one of the halfback posts. A tie between Mars Hill's Ford Parker of Asheville and Wingate's Leonard Ward of Charlotte for one of the end positions produced the 12-man team. The other wingman is Lees-McRae's Gary Thompson.

The remainder of the team includes Mars Hill's Clay Jones of Greenville, South Carolina, tackle; Wingate's J. P. Dowd of Bennetsville, South Carolina, center; Mars Hill's Larry Picklesimer of Brevard and Buddy Windle at quarterback and halfback, respectively; and Lees-McRae's Terry Fostell of Andrews at fullback.

Honorable mention was made of Mars Hill's center, Stanley Lawhon of Albemarle.

Managers

Picklesimer, Arkansas Made All-American Team

John Arkansas and Larry Picklesimer were selected on the Fourth Annual Junior College All-American team by the Wigwam Wisemen of America. Their selection automatically placed them on the eligible list for the annual Junior College All-American East-West game at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

THE LIONS IN ACTION

The Mars Hill College basketball team, headed by Coach Harrel Wood, finished the regular season schedule with a conference record of 1-13.

Mars Hill had a number of classy ballplayers but just couldn't find the combination to keep pace with the tough conference teams. The only win in regular season conference play was recorded against Spartanburg Junior College, winning by one point in overtime. The game revealed some flashes of brilliance on the part of the Lion cagers.

During the five minute overtime, the score changed hands repeatedly, with Mars Hill pulling the game out of the fire on a jump shot by Bill Young with eleven seconds remaining. Young collected 23 points in a sterling performance in which he scored six points in the overtime period. Dave Hughes, freshman from Franklin, North Carolina, showed his ability on several different occasions. Hughes bucketed 17 points against Hiwassee to pace the Lions to a non-conference victory. Both of these boys will be returning next year and should provide a nucleus for a winning team. Kelley Johnson, Charles Clifton, and Bob Holsten will also be returning next season. Johnson, 6' 4", 200 pound center from Hayes, should provide plenty of competition for opposing pivot men next year.

Clarence Maxey, 6', forward from Norfolk, Virginia, will be returning for another year, along with West Hargett, 6' 1", from Charlotte. Both should contribute greatly to the success of the team.

BASEBALL 1959

The 1960 Mars Hill College baseball team opened its season on April 13 with a Western Carolina Junior College Conference game against Wingate College.

There are only three returning players in the starting lineup: Benny Candler, pitcher; Wilbur Efird, at first base; and Burt Birchfield, in right field. The remainder of the starting lineup will be composed of newcomers, either sophomores who did not play last season or incoming freshmen.

The following is the schedule of the college baseball team: April 13, Wingate here; April 16, Spartanburg here for a doubleheader; April 22, Brevard here; April 25, Mars Hill at North Greenville for a doubleheader; April 29, Mars Hill at Gardner-Webb; April 30, Mars Hill at Wingate; May 2, Gaston Tech here for a non-conference doubleheader; May 4, Mars Hill at Brevard; May 10, Mars Hill at Lees-McRae for a double header; May 13, Gardner-Webb here.

TENNIS

COACH VIRGINIA HART

The 1959 Mars Hill Tennis Team, coached by Miss Virginia Hart, captured the North Carolina Junior Conference championship. The Tennis Team at Mars Hill has held this championship for many years.

A two-year winning streak was broken when Mars Hill was beaten, 4-3 by the Furman University Freshman Team. The team, however, went on to win the remaining scheduled matches.

The prospects are for another winning season in 1960. The following is the team's schedule for 1960:

April	13	Wingate
	20	Asheville School
	22	Brevard
	29	Gardner-Webb
	30	Wingate
May	4	Brevard
	10	Lees-McRae
	13	Gardner-Webb
